

APPENDIX

Section 4 (a) of the Act (50 U. S. Code App. 904 (a)) reads as follows:

It shall be unlawful, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, for any person to sell or deliver any commodity, or in the course of trade or business to buy or receive any commodity, or to demand or receive any rent for any defense-area housing accommodations, or otherwise to do or omit to do any act, in violation of any regulation or order under section 2, or of any price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206, or of any regulation, order, or requirement under section 202 (b) of section 205 (f), or to offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Section 205 (a) (50 U. S. Code App. 925 (a)) of the Act, reads as follows:

Whenever in the judgment of the Administrator any person has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute a violation of any provisions of section 4 of this Act, he may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining such acts or practices, or for an order enforcing compliance with such provision, and upon a showing by the Administrator that such person has engaged or is about to engage in any such acts or practices a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order shall be granted without bond.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended
7 F. R. 6428:

§ 1499.101 Prohibition against dealing in services above maximum prices.—On and after July 1, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(a) Sales.—No "person" shall "sell" or supply any of the "services" set forth in paragraph (c) of this section at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended.

* * * * *

(c) Services covered.—This Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended shall apply to all rates and charges for the following services, except when such services are rendered as an employee:

* * * * *

(36) Laundering (including but not limited to laundry collection and including also but not limited to diaper, linen, towel, uniform or work clothes supply service, with or without laundering).

§ 1499.102 Maximum Prices for Services; General Provisions.—Except as otherwise provided in Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, the seller's maximum price for any service to which this Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, is applicable shall be:

(a) The highest price charged during March 1942 (as defined in this section) by the seller—

- (1) For the same service; or
- (2) If no charge was made for the same service, for the similar service most nearly like it;

* * * * *

For the purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, the highest price charged by a seller during March 1942 shall be:

(1) The highest price which the seller charged for a service "supplied" by him during March 1942; or

(2) If the seller supplied no such service during March 1942, his highest "offering price" for supply during that month:

The "highest price charged during March 1942" shall be the highest price charged by the seller during such month to a "purchaser of the same class."

* * * * *

No seller shall evade any of the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, by changing his customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials.

§ 1499.116 Definitions and explanations.—(a) When used in Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended:

(10) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for services for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual customer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or grades or under different conditions of sale.
